Nicole Smith

Nicole Smith is a life-long South Gippsland artist and photographer inspired by the colour, character and beauty of the natural world.

During her residency at the Korumburra Artcube, Nicole will be showing her latest body of work. In addition to her newest artwork, Nicole will be working on at least one other original piece, and will have prints, cards and textiles on offer for visitors to purchase if they wish. Visitors are welcome to browse, talk to Nicole about her work and inspiration and ask questions, discuss ideas and anything else that pops up on the day.
